BOARD GOVERNANCE POLICY

Initiated: December 2021

Approved: January 2022

Reviewed: _____

POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE NDLD BOARD OF DIRECTORS

It is the policy of the North Douglas Board of Directors to exercise those powers granted to it, and to carry out those duties assigned to it by law, in such a way as to best meet the needs of the District. These duties include, but are not limited to:

1. Appoint the District Librarian, determine working conditions, prescribe duties, and evaluate performance
2. Formulate rules and policies for the governance of the library. Determine long-range plans for the development and improvement of library service.
3. Prepare an annual budget.
4. Propose tax levies to provide for, operate, and maintain the library.
5. Authorize all payments in accordance with the adopted budget. Any unusual extraordinary items should be brought to the Board’s attention by the District Librarian.
6. Accept, use, expend, or reject any real or personal property or funds donated to the public library, except that cash donations shall be administered in accordance with its terms, and all property or funds shall be held in the name of North Douglas Library District.
7. Set compensation for all staff.
8. Work for adequate financial support for the library, write and manage grants as necessary.
9. Be aware of and follow state and local law governing libraries and special districts in general.
10. Be aware of the needs of the library in relation to the community, and keep abreast of state standards and general library trends.
11. Attend local and regional board workshops and trainings.
12. Attend board meetings, be an advocate for the library, and maintain accurate records.

MEMBERSHIP ON THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Board of Directors of the North Douglas Library District shall consist of five residents of the District serving four year terms. All Board members must be residents in the District at the time of election or appointment. All membership and election requirements are provided by ORS 357.216-357.286 and ORS 255.

Each newly elected or appointed Board Director shall take the following oath of office, administered by a senior sitting member of the Board and notarized by a licensed public notary, at a Board meeting prior to assuming the duties of the position:

“I, _____, do solemnly swear, or affirm, that I will support the Constitution of the United States, and the Constitution of the State of Oregon and the Laws thereof, and that I will faithfully discharge the duties of Director of the North Douglas Library District to the best of my ability.”

Board Directors are expected to attend all meetings unless there is extenuating business or personal reasons for any absence. If a Board Director misses 2 months without notifying the District Librarian or the Board Chair, the Board may declare that position vacant.

POTENTIAL MEMBERSHIP ON THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Persons interested in running for a Board position shall file a nominating petition with the Douglas County clerk.

The Board, through its staff, shall cooperate impartially with candidates for the Board and provide them with information about Board policies and other aspects of the operation of the District.

VACANCIES

Vacancies on the Board shall be filled by appointment by a majority of the remaining board members at a regular or special meeting, usually within 45 days of the occurrence of the vacancy. If a majority of the membership cannot agree, the vacancies shall be filled by the Douglas County court. (ORS 198.320)

The Board will declare the office of a director vacant upon any of the following:

1. The death or resignation of an incumbent
2. When an incumbent ceases to be a resident of the district
3. When an incumbent ceases to discharge the duties of the office for two consecutive months unless prevented by sickness or other unavoidable cause

North Douglas Library District

4. When an incumbent is removed from office or their election thereto has been declared void by judgement or decree of any appropriate court of law

The vacancy will be filled from the list of candidates by majority vote of the Board at a regular or special meeting, usually within 45 days of the occurrence of the vacancy. Upon appointment by the Board, the newly appointed Board Director will be sworn and seated immediately. If a Board Director resigns, their resignation becomes effective when officially accepted by the board at a regular meeting. The Board will announce the resignation and declare the vacancy at that meeting.

ORIENTING NEW BOARD DIRECTORS

The Board and staff shall assist each new member-elect and appointee to understand the Board's functions, policies, and procedures before they take office. The following opportunities will be available:

1. New members shall be invited to attend and participate in public Board meetings prior to being sworn in.
2. The librarian shall provide material pertinent to District meetings, policies and procedures, and budget, and answer any questions about the information.
3. New members shall be invited to meet the staff and discuss the services each performs for the District. They will be provided with a list of all District personnel by position.
4. A list of Board contact information.
5. A list of links to support documents and resources including Special Districts Association of Oregon, Oregon Ethics Law, Public Records and Meetings Manual.

ETHICAL STANDARDS

The Board of Directors act as representatives of the citizens of the District. The Board individually and as a public entity subscribe to the Government Code of Ethics for Public Officials (ORS 244). No individual Board member may speak or act on behalf of the Board or District, except as authorized to do so by official Board action as recorded in the official minutes, guidelines, or policies of the District.

BOARD ORGANIZATION

Every year at the July meeting, or as soon thereafter as may be practicable, the board shall:

North Douglas Library District
