If you have a fever, feel unwell, or have been in contact with someone who is, please save your visit for another time.

If you have recently visited the library and you become ill, contact the library immediately (541-836-2648 or info@ndld.org).

The health and safety of our staff and community govern our operational decisions. Thank you for respecting other patron's choices and continuing to maintain a low-risk environment for patrons of all health levels to enjoy. Thank you for your understanding and kindness.

- Curbside service is always available during open hours to any patron. To participate in curbside service: place holds online at ndld.bibliionix.com/catalog (requires account login), by calling 541-836-2648, or by emailing info@ndld.org. Reserves will be available for pick up in the Civic Center foyer.
- Masks are strongly encouraged in the building. Masks are available in the lobby.
- Please no food or drink in the building. Water in a no-spill container is permitted.
- Computer sessions are limited to 1 household at a time for a maximum of 1 hour. Laptops are available to checkout to patrons wishing to use a computer (restrictions apply).
- All in-person programs follow posted library policies. See our calendar (<https://www.ndld.org/library-events>) for program dates and times.
- Book delivery and pick-up is available on the third Saturday of every month. To sign up for this program, please call 541-836-2648.
- The library's online resources and services remain available to patrons 24/7. Find out more at: <https://www.ndld.org/resources>.
